When to Get a Window Replacement

How do you know when it's time to get vinyl window replacement services in Utah? Watch for the following signs that you need new windows in your Cottonwood Heights home:

- Stuck windows: Your windows shouldn't stick or give you a hard time opening and closing them. If this happens, investing in new vinyl windows helps ensure that you'll be able to open and close them easily.
- Drafts: Older windows can get drafty due to wear and tear. This can make your home colder in winter or hotter in summer, resulting in lower energy efficiency.
- Broken locks: Your windows should have locks that work properly in order to keep your home as safe as possible.
- Outdoor noise: Your windows shouldn't let in a lot of outdoor sounds. Replacing older windows with new vinyl ones can reduce outdoor noise inside your home.
